CIA

The Global Standard in Internal Audit

CIA holders earn 30–51% more than non-certified peers.

~ IIA Global Research

Issued by The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), USA, the Certified Internal Auditor® (CIA®) is the world's leading professional certification for Internal Audit.

Recognised across more than 170 countries, the CIA designation is considered the gold standard for professionals who evaluate and improve an organisation's risk management, governance and control processes.

Internal Auditors work within organisations to assess operational efficiency, strengthen controls, ensure compliance and help prevent fraud.

Eligibility & Certification Requirements

The CIA programme is designed for both students and working professionals.

A Bachelor's Degree (or equivalent) is required to obtain the CIA certification. Students in their final year may apply and appear for examinations, with certification granted after degree completion and verification.

Three lanes to pursue CIA

Students Lane – start in year one of college

UG+

Start with Internal Audit Practitioner (IAP) – one exam of 125 MCQs, no degree needed. Clear it and you can claim a waiver of CIA Part 1, walking into the workforce already credentialed.

B.Com | BAF | BBI | BMS | CA & CMA students

Graduate & Working Professional Lane

PRO

Graduates, semi-qualified CAs and professionals take the full 3 part route on a compressed, weekend-friendly schedule – most clear all parts within 8–12 months while working.

Graduates | Articleship complete | Audit & Finance pros

Challenge Lane – the CA/CPA fast-track

CA

Active members of ICAI (and bodies like ACCA and CPA) and active CISA holders earn the CIA in a single 150-question, 3-hour sitting – and the Challenge fee includes official study material.

| Applications – Open year-round | 2026 exams: Jun-Sep-Nov
| 2027 exams: Jun-Sep-Nov

Exam Format & Alternative Pathways

The CIA examination is conducted in a computer-based format and consists entirely of multiple-choice questions.

Key Features

- Computer-based examination
- No essays or descriptive answers
- No negative marking
- Conducted through Pearson VUE testing centres
- Parts may be attempted in any order
- Three-year programme completion window
- Year-round, continuous testing
- No fixed exam windows
- Book any available slot at Pearson VUE
- Parts in any order JK Shah recommends P1 → P2-P3

Program window

- 3-year window from program approval to complete all 3 parts + experience.
- Maximum 8 attempts per part.
- 30-day waiting period after a failed attempt.

2025 Syllabus Update: All exam parts now reference the Global Internal Audit Standards (GIAS) – effective January 9, 2025. This replaced the old IPPF framework. JK Shah's curriculum is fully aligned to the 2025 GIAS syllabus. Candidates using pre-2025 materials must update.
